5. HYBRID LUPINES

Amazing, beautifully colored Russell Hybrid Lupines are superb for garden decoration and cutting. Giant 3'-4' spikes have pea-shaped flowers closely spaced which bloom from top to bottom all at once. The range of gorgeous colors makes a showing in any garden . . . particularly with tulips. Bloom year after year.

6. Chinese Lantern

An old favorite with flower lovers! Makes great bold foliage and stalks three to four feet high. The flowers are inconspicuous but in late summer they are followed by pulpy little seed pods enclosed in papery husks which turn blazing scarlet. Many cut, dry, and use Chinese Lanterns for bright winter bouquets. Grow year after year.

7. Sweet Peas

Now you can have lovely, fragrant Sweet Pea Vines coming up year after year! Grow on fences or trellises. Produce a mass of beauty and colorful blooms all season. Supreme in fragrance and unexcelled in cut-flower value. Start blooming July and continue all summer. Gorgeous colors and delicate sheens.

8. Oriental Poppies

Giant, exotic "Cup 'N' Saucer" type. Size of a cup until opened flat—then as big as a saucer! Brilliant colorings. Strong field-grown roots. Mammoth hardy poppies make flower show of themselves year after year! Highest quality.

9. Creeping Phlox

Have you ever wondered what that beautiful maze of color was you saw in a field or by the roadside! It may have been Creeping or Dwarf Phlox, for its grows in abundance, producing lovely little flowers, suitable for graves, banks or ground covering. Vivid pink, pale violet, dazzling white. Beautiful green foliage.

10. PENTSTEMON

Popular, hardy, large-flowered Pentstemon blooms right through the hot weather, displaying two-toned blooms in shades of deep pink and blue clear up until frost. Exceptionally fine for massing in beds or borders. These bright colored blooms are held up by graceful stems 12"-18" high. Excellent for cutting. Bloom year after year.

11. Painted Daisies

The favorite old fashioned Pyrethrum. One of the best perennials for showiness there is. Beautiful when cut and brought into house. Gorgeous blooms every year. All colors except blue and yellow. You'll be mighty pleased with these perennials.

12. Bleeding Heart

Loved by all. One of the most beautiful spring flowering plants that brighten your garden year after year. Laden with numerous rosy red, heart-shaped blooms on graceful arching stems. Grows to about 4' high. This is an excellent bargain at only 25c each!

13. Giant Hibiscus
